Principles on How to Be a Proper Human Being—General

(Guitar)

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). It consists of six staves of music. The first staff (measures 1-3) has a G chord above the first measure and a C chord above the second. The second staff (measures 4-6) has a D chord above the first measure, a G chord above the second, and a C chord above the third. The third staff (measures 7-9) has a G chord above the first, a D7 chord above the second, and G, C, and G chords above the third, fourth, and fifth measures respectively. The fourth staff (measures 10-12) has a G chord above the first and a C chord above the third. The fifth staff (measures 13-15) has a G chord above the first, a G7 chord above the second, and C and Am chords above the third and fourth measures respectively. The sixth staff (measures 16-18) has a G chord above the first, a D7 chord above the second, and G, C, and G chords above the third, fourth, and fifth measures respectively. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words hyphenated across lines. There are three numbered verses. The first verse starts at measure 1. The second verse starts at measure 4. The third verse starts at measure 7. The lyrics end at measure 18.
