

May your spirit and your soul

Various Aspects of the Inner Life—The Tripartite Man

1. May your spir - - it and your soul And your bod - y be pre - served, To the com - ing of the Lord, Be pre - served! Be pre - served! Your whole spir - it and whole soul And your bod - y be pre - served, Be kept blame - less till He comes, Be pre - served! Be pre - served!

2. There's an outer part of me—
 That's my body—you can see,
 But there's more to me than this—
 More than this, more than this.
 Yes, my body's where I live—
 Like my house, I am inside,
 Like the clothes that I may wear,
 I'm inside! I'm inside!

3. Deeper than the part you see
 Is my soul—yes, that is me!
 And this soul has its own parts:
 Mind and will! Feelings, too!
 With my soul I feel and think,
 With this soul my choices make,
 With my soul I love and choose—
 Love the Lord! Choose the Lord!

4. Deep within this inner part
 There's a special part of me—
 It's my spirit—for the Lord!
 Deepest part! For the Lord!
 This one part just matches God—
 Here my conscience speaks for Him,
 It's reserved just for the Lord—
 Deepest part! For the Lord!

5. May your spirit and your soul
 And your body be preserved,
 Your whole being, sanctified
 By our God! God of peace!
 Without blame before the Lord,
 Your whole being, till He comes,
 Be kept blameless and so pure,
 Be preserved! Be preserved!
