

Have You Ever Said, "I'm Sorry"

Principles on How to Be a Proper Human Being — Saying Sorry

The musical score is written on four staves in a 3/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. Chord symbols Eb and Bb are placed above the staff at the beginning of each measure.

1. Have you ev - er said, "I'm sor - ry, I'm sor - ry, I'm sor - ry." Have you ev - er said, "I'm sor - ry" when bump - ing some - one? You all were out play - ing and some - how you bumped them. Oh, I hope you said, "I'm sor - ry" for bump - ing some - one.

2. Have you ever said, "Excuse me, excuse me, excuse me."
Have you ever said, "Excuse me" before you pass through.
A group was in your way and you walked right through them.
Oh, I hope you said, "Excuse me" so you could get through.
3. Have you ever said, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry."
Have you ever said, "I'm sorry" for being so mean?
You kept your young sister from joining in your fun.
Oh, I hope you said, "I'm sorry" for being so mean.
4. Have you ever said, "Excuse me, excuse me, excuse me."
Have you ever said, "Excuse me" before you butt in.
Your mother was talking, but you interrupted.
Oh, I hope you said, "Excuse me" and then had your turn.
