| 2. O God of mercy—Father!         The one unchanging claim,         The brightest hopes, we gather         From Christ's most precious name:         What always sounds so sweetly         In Thine unwearied ear,         Has freed our souls completely         From all our guilt and fear. | 4. No wrath God's heart retaineth         To usward who believe;         No dread in ours remaineth         As we His love receive;         Returning sons He kisses,         And with His robe invests;         His perfect love dismisses         All terror from our breasts. |
| 3. The trembling sinner feareth         That God can ne'er forget;         But one full payment cleareth         His memory of all debt.         When nought beside could free us,         Or set our souls at large,         The death of God's Beloved         Secured a full discharge.     |   |
