2. Lord, we adore Thee for Thy matchless grace,
That Thou, for us, didst take the servant's place;
From Godhead's glory to the shameful tree,
From wealth, so vast, to abject poverty!
3. O Lamb of God, we join to bless Thy name,
That Thou, on Calv'ry, bore our sin and shame
And, by Thy death, didst put our guilt away,
Triumphant rose, our night to turn to day.
4. We see Thee now, at God's right hand enthroned,
Vested with honor and with glory crowned;
Blessed Redeemer, Savior, Lord, to Thee
Be all the glory, pow'r and majesty!
