I hung with Him	up - on	the tree,	And in His tomb	I too	was laid.

2. I rose with Him from out the grave—
And how shall I who died to sin
Continue still to live therein,
The victor living as the slave?
3. At God's right hand He took His place,
And while for saints my Savior pleads,
My heart for sinners intercedes
That they might know His saving grace.
4. Oh, what a name to me is given—
A son of God, by second birth!
I represent Him on the earth,
He represents me now in heaven.
5. As Jesus dwells beyond the skies,
I dwell within this world of strife;
And as He lives within my life,
In Him I'm in the heavenlies!
