2. Lie low before His feet,
 Too low thou canst not be,
 For sacred calm is here,
 And here is liberty.
3. Submit, lay down thine arms,
 Nor question, nor rebel;
 So shalt thou hear erewhile
 His whisper, It is well.
4. No secret wound of thine,
 Though it be great or small,
 Presume to hide from Him;
 Confess, confess it all;
5. Nor merit of thine own
 Upon His altar place;
 All is of Christ alone,
 And of His perfect grace.
6. Rest, rest thee, weary heart,
 Let care and anguish cease;
 Take from thy Savior's hands
 Thine heritage of peace.
