2. His voice commands the tempest forth,
 And stills the stormy wave;
 And though His arm be strong to smite,
 'Tis also strong to save.
3. Long hath the night of sorrow reigned;
 The dawn shall bring us light;
 God shall appear, and we shall rise
 With gladness in His sight.
4. Our heart, if God we seek to know,
 Shall know Him, and rejoice;
 His coming like the morn shall be,
 Like morning songs His voice.
5. As dew upon the tender herb,
 Diffusing fragrance round,
 As showers that usher in the spring,
 And cheer the thirsty ground;
6. So shall His presence bless our souls,
 And shed a joyful light;
 That hallowed morn shall chase away
 The sorrows of the night.
