

Come, let us to the Lord our God
Encouragement — For Returning to the Lord

665

Musical score for the hymn "Come, let us to the Lord our God". The score is written in G major (one sharp) and common time (C). It consists of two staves. The first staff is the vocal line, and the second staff is the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "1. Come, let us to the Lord our God With contrite heart re- turn; Our God is gracious, nor will leave The de-so-late to mourn." The piano accompaniment starts with a four-measure rest, indicated by a '4' in the margin. Chord symbols are placed above the notes: D, G, A, G, D, Bm, A, G, D/A, A7, D, G/D, D.

2. His voice commands the tempest forth,
And stills the stormy wave;
And though His arm be strong to smite,
'Tis also strong to save.
3. Long hath the night of sorrow reigned;
The dawn shall bring us light;
God shall appear, and we shall rise
With gladness in His sight.
4. Our heart, if God we seek to know,
Shall know Him, and rejoice;
His coming like the morn shall be,
Like morning songs His voice.
5. As dew upon the tender herb,
Diffusing fragrance round,
As showers that usher in the spring,
And cheer the thirsty ground;
6. So shall His presence bless our souls,
And shed a joyful light;
That hallowed morn shall chase away
The sorrows of the night.
