1. "All in His hands"—what confidence it brings To test-ed hearts, to know that all the things That make up life and cir-cumstance, He holds In His strong hands, and pa-tient-ly un-folds Th'e-ter-nal purpose of His sovereign Will— That all things shall His grace and glo-ry fill.

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). It consists of three staves. The first staff contains the first line of the melody with lyrics and a 'D' chord above it. The second staff continues the melody with lyrics and chords 'A', 'D', 'G', 'E', 'A', and 'E7' above it. The third staff continues the melody with lyrics and chords 'A', 'A7', 'D', 'G', 'D', 'G', 'Em', 'A7', and 'D' above it. The piece ends with a double bar line.

2. "All in His hands"? Then life with purpose moves
Within the circle of His will, and proves
It good, acceptable. The hands of man
Or Satan cannot mar or foil the plan
Which God ordained—to manifest His Son
In earthen vessels, to a world undone.
