| Lord; | The lamp we'd light, | | | through day and night Our praise to Him outpoured. | | | | | | | |

- 2. No natural light, but just the lamp Within the holy place gives sight; Whene'er the priest the incense burns, The lamp he too must light.
- 3. The grace of God let us extol
 And stir our heart sweet praise to sing;
 For priests not only light the lamp,
 But constant praises bring.
- 4. I'll offer prayers as incense burns, Christ's resurrection bring therein, God's wish thus meet, His heart give joy, And I'll rejoice with Him.

- 5. I'll read His Word, His light receive, E'en as the lamp before Him lit, His holy light illum'ning me To others I'll transmit.
- 6. Unto the Lord His praise I'll sing As holy priests their songs did raise; O may my heart be filled with Him His love and grace to praise.
- 7. I'll offer Christ to God in prayer,
 I'll read the Word, His light to know,
 For all His grace I'll sing His praise,
 The Spirit then may flow.
