

Soon our Lord will come, the day is drawing nigh

Hope of Glory — Waiting and Watching

956

Musical score for the hymn "Soon our Lord will come, the day is drawing nigh". The score is written in G-flat major (three flats) and common time (C). It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with the lyrics "1. Soon our Lord will come, the day is draw-ing nigh, Sound of His ap-proach-ing we can hear." The second staff continues with "Watchful we must be and al-ways on alert That the Lord our hearts with rap-ture cheer." The third staff is labeled "Chorus" and begins with "(C) Glo - ry! glo - ry! Christ will come a - gain! Glo - ry! glo - ry! We with Him shall reign!" The fourth staff concludes with "With a glo-rious bod - y, ev - er with the Lord, Sing-ing all His praise with glad accord." Chord symbols are placed above the notes: Ab, Ab7/C, Db, Bbm, Eb, Eb7/G, Ab, Db/Ab for the first staff; Ab, Ab7/C, Db, Bbm, Eb, Eb7/G, Ab, Db/Ab, Ab for the second staff; Ab, Eb7, Fm, C7, Db, Bb7/D, Eb, Bb7, Eb, Eb7/G for the third staff; Ab, Ab7/Gb, Db/F, Db, Eb, Eb7/G, Ab, Db/Ab, Ab for the fourth staff.

2. Soon our Lord will come, the Morning Star appear;
Night is deep, and soon will dawn the day.
Never with the current of the age we go,
That from trials we'll be kept away.
3. Soon our Lord will come His servants to reward;
Those who love Him then the crown will share.
Watchful we must be and treasure not the world,
Love and serve the Lord, His burden bear.
4. Soon our Lord will come and in His kingdom reign;
Satan will be bound, the world subdued.
We must fight the battle, overcome the foe,
On His throne He then will us include.