<ul> <li>2. Brazen serpent, to Thee looking, Son of Man, uplifted high. Thou didst bear the flesh of sin in Likeness on the cross to die. Old creation's termination; Finished, Satan and the world, Finished Satan and the world!</li> <li>3. Grain of wheat, so small and lowly, Without death abides alone; Life divine enclosed within it, Into death it must be sown. Life releasing, Christ increasing, Many grains to birth to bring;</li> <li>4. Lamb of God—our sin's redemption, Brazen serpent—Satan's end, Grain of wheat—life's reproduction, Now with many grains we blend. Hallelujah! Hallelujah!</li> <li>What an all-inclusive death, What an all-inclusive death!</li> </ul>
