O Lord, our Lord, how excellent

Praise of the Lord — His Victory and Exaltation

Praise of the Lord — His Victory and Exaltation
(Guitar: Capo 3)
D					A A <sup>7</sup>
	1. 0	Lord, our Lord, h	ow ex - cel	- lent Thy	name in all	the
D					E <sup>7</sup>
earth!	Let	ev-ery peo-ple	, tribe, and to	ngue Pro -	claim its bound	- less
Α	A <sup>7</sup> D		Α	D
worth.	Out of	the mouth of	lit - tleo	ones Thou	hast es-ta -	blished
Α	A <sup>7</sup> D		G	D	A A <sup>7</sup> D
praise,	That Thou	may still Thine e -	ne - my And	swift - ly	end his days.
The work The moon By lofty v O what is That Tho The son of In Thine 3. O Jesus L The One Who put v And took But now w With sov	the universe be a of Thy great h and stars which wisdom planned man that Thou ou should'st mir f man Thou visi economy. ord, Thou art th who joined our upon Himself th a lower place. with glory Thou ereignty complet ugh Thy Body T	and— h Thou ordained d; should'st care ndful be? test nat man, race, e flesh art crowned, ete.			<ul> <li>4. Thine incarnation, rising too, And Thy transcendency, Thy Lordship, Headship, kingdom full, And Body here we see.</li> <li>By all these steps of work divine Thou hast established praise.</li> <li>With overflowing hearts to Thee Our joyful voice we raise.</li> <li>5. Oh, soon that blessed day shall come— All tongues these words shall peal! But in the local churches now We have a foretaste real.</li> <li>O Lord, our Lord, how excellent Thy name in all the earth! Let every people, tribe, and tongue</li> </ul>
With all beneath Thy feet.     Proclaim						-	