2. O what a peace it gives us
   To see the sprinkled blood.
   The blood of our peace offering
   Has brought us peace with God.
   With boldness we're proclaiming—
   Now hear this, enemy—
   "Peace by the blood of Jesus!"
   This is our victory.

3. Based on the burnt oblation
   And the meal offering too,
   We now may offer Jesus
   As our peace offering true.
   The more we eat and drink Him
   In His humanity,
   The more we may enjoy Him
   While feasting corporately.

   What fellowship, what fellowship
   With God and man we share!
   O what a joy, O what a feast
   With all God's people here.

4. Here God enjoys His portion—
   'Tis inward, hidden, sweet—
   And all the priestly family
   May here the wave breast eat.
   The offering priest—how precious—
   May of the best partake:
   He gets the right heave shoulder
   And one unleavened cake.

   Christ is our peace! Christ is our peace!
   We praise Thee, blessed Lord!
   Our peace with God, our peace with man
   Have fully been restored.

5. How sweet to eat the wave breast,
   The all-embracing love
   Of Christ in resurrection!
   It sets us all above.
   What strength to eat the shoulder
   Of the ascended One
   And with the cake be nourished
   To walk as He has done.

6. With all the cleansed ones feasting,
   How rich the Christ we eat!
   Oh, this is true communion,
   The only way to meet.
   We bring our full thanksgiving
   And e'en would make a vow—
   We're for the Lord's recovery
   As He is for us now.
