

Eat the bread, ye people of the Lord

Praise of the Lord — Remembrance of Him

1108

(Guitar: Capo 1)

D A A<sup>7</sup>
1. Eat the bread, ye peo-ple of the Lord: Praise His name, for He has
D A A<sup>7</sup>
made us one. Now we come to eat in one ac - cord As the church which He has made His D D<sup>7</sup> G D A A<sup>7</sup>
own. (C) Eat the bread and drink the wine, ye saints! We are one in Him for -
D G D E<sup>7</sup> A A<sup>7</sup>
e'er. Stand in one-ness on the local ground, Eat and drink in one - ness there!

2. Drink the wine, ye people of the Lord:
We're the church His precious blood has bought.
We're redeemed to be in one accord—
This the goal for which He long has sought.

Eat the bread and drink the wine, ye saints!
We are one in Him fore'er.
Stand in oneness on the local ground,
Eat and drink in oneness there!

3. Stand as one, ye people of the Lord:
Not as individual grains are we—
We are one, we're blent in one accord
As a loaf in each locality.

Eat the bread and drink the wine, ye saints!
We are one in Him fore'er.
Stand in oneness on the local ground,
Eat and drink in oneness there!

4. We are one as people of the Lord;
We declare that we are really one!
Not just word, but life in one accord
Testify what God in us hath done.

Eat the bread and drink the wine, ye saints!
We are one in Him fore'er.
Stand in oneness on the local ground,
Eat and drink in oneness there!

5. Eat the bread, ye people of the Lord:
Praise His name, for He has made us one.
Now we come to eat in one accord
As the church which He has made His own.

(Do not repeat chorus after last verse)