1. We have seen Christ is re - al - i - ty: But it's not suf - fi - cient just to see:
2. Life is full of op - por - tu - ni - ties Or - dered by our Fa - ther's hand: we see

He in our ex - pe - ri - ence must be Ev - ery - thing to us.
Ev - ery - thing's the best that it could be, So let's gain Christ!

We in prayer be - hold Him face to face, In the Word and meet - ings know His grace;
Christ our con - tent and re - al - i - ty To shine out from us un - ceas - ing - ly:

But in dai - ly life, in ev - ery place, What is He to us?
He must have a way in you and me, He must have a way.

Hal - le - lu - jah! By His light we see Oh, how real, how full our Lord will be Hal - le - lu - jah! In the bod - y we Bear the death of Christ cont - in - ual - ly:

If we'll on - ly turn to Him at ev - ery time, in ev - ery day, Ev - ery thing, in ev - ery way and—
Thus His life comes forth for all to see as The out - er man is bro - ken down, The in - ner man is shin - ing so that—

Be spe - ci - fic for re - al - i - ty! And be done with gen - e - ral - i - ty!
In these earth - en ves - sels men can see There's the trea - sure of re - al - i - ty!

If we'll just ap - ply Him, we will see He's ev - ery - thing to us.
Thus the gos - pel's glo - rious light will be Shin - ing out from us.

Not just doc - trines and the - ol - o - gy, But the con - tent of re - al - i - ty:

Christ as ev - ery - thing in you and me, He's ev - ery - thing to us!
