1. Son of Man, Son of Man on the throne to-day; Son of Man, Pi - o-neer, He has led the way;
Fol-lowing, how we sing, Je-sus leads us on; We are marching with the Vic-tor to the throne.

2. On we go, on we go to the throne with Him;
On we go through this age, age so dark and grim;
Then shall we—formerly, Satan’s captured ones—
Be exalted with the Lord upon His throne.
3. Called as sons, called as sons, destined to be kings;
Called as sons we’ve no time for the worldly things:
Yet we know, it is so—we don’t qualify!
Thus the Lord must search and burn and purify.
4. Search and burn, search and burn all our inward parts;
Search and burn, thoroughly, to refine our hearts;
We’ll not fear, but be clear—burning, searching thus
Is the gracious visit of the Lord to us.
5. With the Man, with the Man is a rainbow fair;
Glorious bow, ’round the throne, faithfulness declares:
We deserved to be served with God’s judgment sore,
But we have been spared to praise Him more and more.
