2. Start in the outer court,	6. Christ is objective too,
But aim to get inside;	But subjective are we
The Holy Place is good,	In our experience;
But do not there abide.	Our spirit is the key.
Leave sin behind—it's put away;	God, throne, and holiest—we see
We're in the veil with God to stay.	Our spirit now contains all three.
3. To rise from earth to heav'n,	7. Leviticus is past,
A deeper turn we need;	And Aaron's work is o'er;
To be where Christ is now	Melchisedec is here,
Upon the throne indeed.	High Priest forevermore;
We're gathered at the throne of grace,	His ministry is now so fine:
Beholding Jesus face to face.	He comes to feed us bread and wine.
4. We're being turned as one,	(Repeat the last line of each stanza)
Not individually;
Not private Christians now,
But Body Christians we.
As members here in one accord,
We are the Body of the Lord.

5. As Body Christians now
We have a higher word.
Foundation's word we see,
'Tis altar, cross, and blood.
Perfection's word is little known,
'Tis fellowship around the throne.
