

I thirsted in the barren land of Babylon

The Church — As Our Home and Rest

1234

1. I thirst-ed in the bar-ren land of Ba - by - lon And noth-ing sat - is - fy - ing there I found; But to the blessed lo-cal church one day I came, Where springs of liv-ing wa-ter do a-bound.

Chorus

(C) Drink-ing at the springs of liv-ing wa - ter, Hap-py now am I, My heart they sat - is-fy;
Drink-ing at the springs of liv-ing wa - ter, O won-der-ful and boun-ti - ful sup - ply!

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and common time (C). It consists of four staves. The first two staves contain the first line of the verse, and the last two staves contain the chorus. Chords are indicated above the notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

2. How sweet the living water from the hills of God,
It's flowing in and flowing out of me;
O now I've found the place for which I long had sought,
Where there is life and life abundantly.
3. O brother, won't you gather in the local church?
A fountain here is flowing deep and wide.
The Shepherd now would bring you to the local church,
Where thirsty spirits can be satisfied.
