way. (C) Upon the earth, the Lord desires A place where He may live; For this, Thy habi-ta-tion, Lord, Myself I fully give.
2. We heard of it while yet far off,					4. Her food abundant He will bless,
We found it in the way;					Her needy, satisfy;
We then came up into her courts,					And with salvation clothe her priests,
And here we'll ever stay.					And all her want supply.
Arise, O Lord, into Thy rest,					The horn of David's budding here,
Thou and Thy ark so strong.				A lamp for earth's dark night.
Thy priests are clothed with righteousness;					His enemies are clothed with shame,
Thy saints with joy and song.					His saints with crowns of light.
3. The Lord has sworn in truth to us,				5. And now within these latter days,
He will not turn away—					Amidst earth's dark unrest,
His Seed shall sit with Him enthroned,					God's house is being built again
And reign with Him for aye.					And all His people blessed.
The Lord hath found a place to dwell,					Secure within the local church,
Hath chosen Zion fair;					With saints in one accord
His habitation it will be,					We meet to just release our praise,
It is His rest fore'er.						And	thus en	joy the	Lord.
