At the end of Luke's gospel, chapter twenty and two

Spiritual Warfare — In the Body

1291

(Guitar)

D		Α	Bm	D		G	F#m
1. At the	e end of	Luke's gos-pel, cha	p-ter twen-ty	and two,	The Lord	says	to Pet-er, "Sa-t	an
Em	A	D	A	D	G		D
wants to	sift you,	But the Lord's in -	ter-ced-ing ar	nd His prayer	is true,	Hal-le - lu-jah!	He's prayed for us, w	ve'll
A ⁷	D			G	D		Bm
nev-er sift through! (C) Though there's all kinds of battles in our living each day, And we always face tri-als, life is ordered that way, Still, in all si-tu-ations, as Hein-tercedes, Hein all things supplies us and meets all of our needs.
Em	A	D A	D	G		D	A ⁷ D

- 2. Just a Christian alone, however strong he may be Cannot withstand the sifting of the Lord's enemy; Though he might sift one only, yet he'll ne'er sift two, Hallelujah! Together we're too big to sift through!
- 3. What a wonderful purpose God has purposed for us, To be transformed and reigning with His Son, glorious; So it just doesn't matter what the foe might do— Hallelujah! The church is much too big to sift through!