

That which for long the prophets sought

Hope of Glory — The Consummation of the Ages

1319

1. That which for long the prophets sought, The righteous yearned to see, Has in these last of days appeared In its reality. (C) And we're now in the final stages, 'Tis the completion of all the ages. All those who believed the promise Are perfected now in us.

Chorus

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature (C). It consists of four staves of music. The first staff contains the first line of the verse. The second staff contains the second line of the verse. The third staff contains the chorus, starting with a box labeled 'Chorus'. The fourth staff contains the final line of the verse. Chords are indicated above the notes. The lyrics are written below the notes.

2. Oh, blessed are our eyes that see,
Our ears, how blessed to hear;
Things angels ne'er could look into
Are now to us made clear.

3. Our sense is corporate, bold and strong,
His grace, how free to take;
Encouraging the others on,
Run for the kingdom's sake.

4. We're weary not this race to run,
It makes our joy complete;
For this we know, around the bend,
The Lord we'll surely meet.
