case— I'm just a li - - ly trust - ing God.

2. There's nothing on this earth
That I desire.
There's no experience
That I require.
I only want one thing—
(Satan's a liar!)
To be a lily trusting God.

3. If when I trust in God
I'm put to shame;
If when I walk with God
I come out lame;
These things don't bother me;
I'm not to blame—
Since I'm a lily trusting God.

4. With all your worrying
To clothe yourself;
So many lies you've told
To gather wealth;
And though you've gotten rich,
You've lost your health—
Just be a lily trusting God.

5. It seems you know so much,
But yet you fall;
And though you talk so much,
Yet you won't call;
So what's the use of it,
For after all—
Just be a lily trusting God.

6. So please don't bother me
With all your fears;
You strive and try so hard
With sweat and tears.
Have faith in Jesus Christ—
He's always near!
Just be a lily trusting God.

7. Yes, please don't bother me,
I'm growing fine.
Oh please don't share with me
What's on your mind.
I may not know so much,
But still I shine.
For I'm a lily trusting God.

8. And please don't bother me
With all your cares;
Don't make me listen to
Your begging prayers;
Our God is very great—
He really cares!
Just be a lily trusting God.

9. It seems that I don't care
So much for you;
But if you knew my heart,
I really do;
Yet lilies don't know how
To fret and stew—
I'm just a lily—How 'bout you?
