2. We're no longer free to roam; Christ has led us to our home. Brothers and sisters, we've come, now we're one: Here the real family life has begun.

- 3. We have come to God's chosen place; It is here that we see His face. This is where He's put His name; Once you're here you'll not be the same.
- 4. Hallelujah! We've lost our choice, Since the day that we heard His voice. Deep within we heard the "Amen." "This is My choice—you'll not choose again!"
