

Jesus is my King all-glorious

Praise of the Lord — His Love

8127

1. Je - sus is my King all-glorious, so wide, so deep His love; From His throne He came, a seek-ing shepherd
He, Humbly placed in borrowed manger, to E-gypt then escaped, Lat-er called the Naz-a-rene from Gal-i - lee. For thirty-three years serving, de-spised, refused by men, Preaching ev-erywhere God's kingdom not to miss, Healing, teaching, suffering hunger, no bed His aches to cheer, So immense, so wonderful a love is this.

2. He, my King, my Lord, my Savior, my welling Fount of love,
Walked the lonely path to dark Gethsemane.
Sweat like blood-drops for my peril, obeyed His Father's will,
Paid the price to save all men eternally.
Despised, man's insult's taking, the sinner's blame endured,
Bore the cross unto Golgotha willingly,
Scarred by nails and scarred by spear, whence blood and water streamed,
So immense His love expressed to full degree.
3. Jesus is my King of mercy, with love immeasurable;
On the cross He prayed, and mercy's heart was shown.
There a dying thief repented, received salvation's word;
Jesus bore all sins, rejected left alone.
What piercing pain and sorrow, with vinegar and gall,
Unto God He did depart victorious,
Resurrected and ascended, our interceding Christ,
He reveals His love so deep and wonderous.
4. Jesus is my King victorious; His love my heart has touched.
For this sinner He has died, His love to show.
I am healed and cleansed completely, and in His mercies rest,
Taught by Him and guided, on His path I go.
Temptations fierce unheeding, salvation is my wall;
I'm empowered daily as I go along.
With eyes on Him in glory, I sing with heart renewed,
And His love is all the message of my song.
