2. We recall how You descended,
As a slave You bore distress;
You were tested, often fasted,
With no place Your head to rest.
How You came, lost sinners seeking,
Suffering scorn and hunger's pain;
Counting one repentant sinner
Fully worth the blood You shed.

3. We recall Your crucifixion,
God-forsaken, man-condemned,
You alone bought our redemption,
Boundless love exhibited.
Resurrected, You ascended,
At God's right hand intercede;
As You've promised, You'll accomplish:
Lord, come soon, our joy complete!
