2. Everything works to God's glory

As unobstructed it flows;

Then, of the utmost importance,

All on the altar must go.

3. This water flows without limit;

All has been measured by God;

All things are now His possession,

Judged by His measuring rod.

4. Water of life, overflowing,

Now is a great rushing tide.

Man can no longer act freely;

By grace alone we abide.
