2. My sickness laid on Jesus,
The lash for me endured;
My weaknesses He carried
That I be fully cured.
My misery on Jesus,
He bore it all for me;
My sorrow He abolished
And gave me joy and peace.

3. I now have rest in Jesus,
My King of Righteousness;
His death met God's demand, and
His blood my conscience cleansed.
Now all my trust's in Jesus,
My strength for ev'ry hour;
His living shows God's riches,
His life in me empow'rs.

4. I give my heart to Jesus,
That there He'd be enthroned
To be my Lord and life, and
In me to make His home.
According to His pattern
I hope to live each day;
His attitude and actions
May He through me display!
