2. Once body, soul were burdened sore;
Now all is peace forevermore.
My sins were all by Him forgiv'n;
My troubles all were borne by Him.
3. Once I was blind, as darkest night;
Now I have sight, as noonday bright.
My straying feet He set aright;
Now He does lead on paths of light.
4. Once I was lonely, all alone;
Now Him as my Companion own.
Moment by moment He's with me,
Shows sympathy and cares for me.
5. His sweet love draws me on His way;
His full grace brings me to obey.
His loving heart's deliv'ring me;
His gracious hand's preserving me.
6. Oh, whom have I in heav'n but Him?
To whom belong on earth but Him?
His love eternally shall last!
My love for Him's not quickly past.
