2. I've chosen the Lord Jesus,
My very joy to be,
With Him my heart, though aching,
Has still a song to sing.
With Him, I need no reason
To shout exultantly,
For all my jubilation
From Him does spring.

3. I've chosen the Lord Jesus,
My very hope to be,
I muse on all the vastness
Of wealth to me bequeathed;
And yet, 'tis the Provider
I treasure and desire;
To gain the best—Christ Jesus—
My heart aspires.

4. I've chosen the Lord Jesus,
My very Lord to be;
His love defies description,
One taste will conquer thee.
My all I've consecrated,
And naught from Him implore,
But that my Lord be happy,
And grieved no more.
