1. I've cho - sen the Lord Je - sus, My ver - y world to be; His love is so a - bun - dant, He fills my ev - ery need. O Lord, I am Your ves - sel Which on - ly You can fill; All Sy - char's wells ex - haust - ing, I'm thirst - y still. (C) Oh, Je - - sus Christ! He is the One for me! My heart's a - bid - ing at the source Of ev - ery sweet - est thing. Oh, Je - - sus Christ! He all my heart doth fill; With Him, I have no oth - er plea, In Him, my heart is still.

2. I've chosen the Lord Jesus,
 My very joy to be,
 With Him my heart, though aching,
 Has still a song to sing.
 With Him, I need no reason
 To shout exultantly,
 For all my jubilation
 From Him does spring.

3. I've chosen the Lord Jesus,
 My very hope to be,
 I muse on all the vastness
 Of wealth to me bequeathed;
 And yet, 'tis the Provider
 I treasure and desire;
 To gain the best—Christ Jesus—
 My heart aspires.

4. I've chosen the Lord Jesus,
 My very Lord to be;
 His love defies description,
 One taste will conquer thee.
 My all I've consecrated,
 And naught from Him implore,
 But that my Lord be happy,
 And grieved no more.
