 lone; I must tell Je - sus! I must tell Je - sus! He knows, He comforts— Jesus a-lone.

2. I must tell Jesus all of my troubles;
 I cannot bear my burdens alone;
 My affairs, only Jesus can shoulder;
 Comfort and soothe me—Jesus alone.
3. I must tell Jesus all my shortcomings;
 I cannot face my worries alone;
 I taste His riches, my need supplying,
 More than sufficient—Jesus alone.
4. I must tell Jesus all of my weakness;
 I can't o'ercome flesh, lust, on my own;
 From law of sin, from all of my bondage,
 He can release me—Jesus alone.
5. I must tell Jesus all my temptations;
 I can't withstand the tempter alone.
 In a like manner Jesus was tempted;
 Jesus can rescue—Jesus alone.
