

Rejoice and tremble, heav'n and earth

Gospel — Mystery

8697

Re - joice and trem - ble, heav'n and earth! The migh - ty God with man would dwell! Though man is vile and with - out worth, Yet God, in love, will ne'er re - pel. (C) What great news! Mys - t'ry true! God wants to dwell with me and you! For - ev - er one, at rest we'll stay, En - joy - ing God Him - self for aye! What great news! Myst'ry true! God wants to dwell with me and you!

Chorus

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in 3/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. Chords are indicated by letters above the staff: C, F, C/E, Dm, F/A, Gm, C7, Bb/F, C/E, Dm, F/A, Gm/Bb, C7, F, Bb/F, F, C/G, F/A, C/G, F, Bb, C7, F, C/E, Dm, F/A, Gm, C7, Bb/F, and F. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words split across lines. The chorus is marked with a box and the letter (C) in parentheses.