Chorus

2. Thy glory is the splendor related
To Thy dear Person, Jesus Lord;
While honor is the preciousness
Related to Thine own great worth.

3. Thou art, dear Lord, the greatest attraction,
Within the universe to see,
And like unto an immense magnet,
Drawing Thy seekers unto Thee.

4. Without Thyself, the charming Object,
How could we from all things turn 'way?
How could we from so many distractions
Upon this earth, Lord, look away?
