

The greatest king on earth

Miscellaneous

1. The great-est king on earth, that is King So-lo-mon, Fell in love with a coun-try girl.

8 The king had to go to the countryside And become a country man, To change his status, That he could court her.

16 In His court-ship with her She was changed to be his match, To become his queen and Shu-lam-mite,

24 To be-come his coun-ter-part And be-come His lov-ing

28 bride. This is the sto-ry of the Song of Songs.

The musical score is written in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. It consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The melody is simple and hymn-like. Chords are indicated by letters above the notes: F, Bb, F, Dm, Gm. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes. The second staff continues the melody and lyrics, with chords C7, F, Bb, F, Bb, C, Bb/F. The third staff has chords F, C, C7/E, F, F/A, G, G7, C. The fourth staff has chords C7, F, Bb. The fifth staff has chords F, Gm7, C, Bb/F, F. The score ends with a double bar line.

2. The Song of Songs depicts our story with God
Of fallen man with the King of kings.
Because of His love for us,
He became a lowly man
To reach us and to die for our sins.
Then in resurrection He
Regenerated me
And now we're daily being transformed.
To become the same as He with His life and nature
To become His counterpart, His match and bride.
