

I thought I knew You

Assurance and Joy of Salvation—Freed by the Lord

(Guitar)

1. I thought I knew You, I did not love You; I thought I met You, I had on-ly heard of You. You whis-pered to me, I shut my ears, Lord. You tried to show me that You could be some-thing more. And then You caught me— The great love You had for me— I could not help but love Thee. Lord, Your com-pas-sion had drawn me so en-tire-ly. At last, I glimpsed Your beau-ty.

2. I felt so filthy, You shone on my sin.
I asked Your pardon, then You cleansed me from within.
My eyes were opened, now I could see You.
You were more real than anything I ever knew.
And then You freed me—
You hung and died on a tree—
I wasn't even worthy.
Lord, then You found me and rescued me from my sins.
Lord, You are full of mercy.
