

Oh listen to a story of abounding grace

Gospel—General

(Guitar)

1. Oh lis-ten to a sto-ry of a-bound-ing grace Of how our God came down to earth to 4 join the hu-man race And through His kind in-ten-tion, He came up with a plan That 7 He Him-self might be ex-pressed by dis-pens-ing in-to man. (C) Oh Chorus
9 what a kind in-ten-tion, oh what a-bound-ing grace How our God came down to earth to 12 join the hu-man race It sure-ly was a mys-tery so deep we could not trace
15 That we might be to the praise of the glo-ry of His grace.

2. For God had predetermined, by His counsel and His will
That man might be a vessel, which He Himself would fill
And so for this He chose us, back in eternity
And He predestinated us His very sons to be.
3. His task, it was not easy, it surely took much grace
When on the earth He first appeared, a man in time and space
And then for thirty-three long years, He lived out God in Man
That He might fully carry out all of the Father's plan.
4. At the end of His lifetime, He did a wondrous thing
Went to the cross and shed His blood, redemption to win
This brought us into favour, into a blessed place
For God forgave our offenses by the riches of His grace.
5. Now in the application, the Spirit's moving in Applying all the Son has done, forgiving all our sin
He's sealing God into us, full sonship to bring
Oh, this is the mystery of the universe, and this is why we sing.
