1. There's a life that's deeper than our mind, With experience of man, yet so di-vine. It's a life that knows no bounds; And with fest-ed in the Per-son of the Son. As the Spir-it, He flows; In our spir-it He grows, Growing up to be the church that He desires.

2. In the church, we all can apprehend
All the riches of this life that is within.
Not just shallowness with strife,
But a deep and peaceful life
Is just waiting to flow out, a living spring.
With the saints it's easy to be bold,
To pursue this life, to gain it, to lay hold.
All the other things we find,
Must be quickly left behind,
So that only life remains for us to see.

3. Deeper, Lord our turn must be to You;
We would move by life in everything we do;
All our concepts refute,
For Your life be absolute—
Grant us grace to turn much deeper day by day.
When we touch our spirit—such a thrill!
This is far beyond emotion, mind, and will—
It's within our hidden part—
Come, make home in all our heart;
Let Your presence flow as rivers deep within.
