

But the God of all grace

Scriptures for Singing

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'But the God of all grace'. It consists of three staves of music in treble clef with a common time signature (C). The melody is written on the top staff, and the lyrics are written below it. The chords are indicated by letters above the notes. The lyrics are: (C) But the God of all grace, He who has called you in-to His e-ter-nal glo-ry In Christ Je-sus, Af-ter you have suf-fered a lit-tle while, Will Him-self per-fect, es-tab-lish, strength-en, and ground you. To Him be the glo-ry and the might for-ev-er and ev-er. A-men.

C C/E F C/E F C D G

(C) But the God of all grace, He who has called you in-to His e-ter-nal glo-ry In Christ Je-sus,

5 F C F G Dm G Em Am

Af-ter you have suf-fered a lit-tle while, Will Him-self per-fect, es-tab-lish, strength-en, and ground you. To Him be the glo-ry and the might for-ev-er and ev-er. A-men.

9 F G C F G Em Am Dm⁷ G⁷ C F/C C