

Lord, You have searched me and You have known me

Various Aspects of the Inner Life — Dealing with the Heart

(Guitar: Capo 1)

1. Lord, You have searched me and You have known me. You un-der-stand my thoughts from a -
7 far! You com-pre-hend my path and are ac-quaint-ed with all my ways, For 13 there is not a word on my tongue, But be-hold You know it all to - geth-er!
21 Chorus
(C) Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me and know my anx - i - e - ties;
25 See if there is an - y wick-ed in me, And lead me in the way ev - er - last - ing!

2. Lord, You have touched me and You have shown me

That I am not so simple as I thought.
I often run and hide, prone to an errant heart.
But there is not a pause and You pursue!
And behold You've caught me altogether!

Where can I go from Your Spirit, O Lord?
I can't flee from Your presence, You're inside me.
I've climbed the steep mountains, but You still are there,
Descend to the valleys but You find me.

3. Now I see, there's something more to this pattern:

You want to show me all that You are.
So You've drawn me from this strife, into the family life.
As one, our prayers can match Your deep desires.
Now behold we follow You together!
