

The Spirit Consummated

Blessing of the Trinity—His Revelation

(Guitar: Capo 3)

1. Our God is one and yet tri - une, The Fa - ther in the Son;
 Suc - ces - sive stag - es were His plan, The Spir - it to be - come;
 The first One sent the sec - ond One, Yet, both are still the same; The first One sent the third One, and, We're bap - tized in His name.

Chorus
 (C) The Spir - it of the Tri - une God Is God's e - con - o - my;
 The con - sum - mat - ed Ho - ly One Flows on and on e - ter - nal - ly.

2. Though God in nature cannot change,
 He passed through womb and cross;
 The Lamb of God has been prepared,
 Yet, nothing has been lost.
 The Spirit is the compound God;
 The One that was "not yet";
 The seven Spirits, seven eyes,
 Today are "The Spirit".

3. The processed God, the flowing God,
 Is the eternal source;
 Emerging in a bubbling spring,
 An overflowing course.
 The Father's love, a fountain is;
 The Son, as grace, the spring;
 The fellowshipping Spirit flows
 Out from our inmost being.

4. The Spirit is a holy realm,
 Divine and mystical;
 We enter in and live by Him,
 He is so practical.
 Sevenfold intensified,
 The Spirit's final stage,
 Will overcomes soon produce,
 To consummate the age.
