

Where is the House

Scriptures for Singing

Where is the house you'll build for Me, And the place of My rest? Where then is the house you'll build for Me,
And the place of My rest? Heav-en is My throne, and the earth The foot-stool for My feet.
Where then is the house you'll build for Me, And the place of My rest?
For all these things My hand has made, And so all these things have come in - to being, de-clares Je-ho - vah. But to this kind of man will I look, to him who is poor
And of a con-trite spir - it, and who trem - bles at My word.
Where then is the house you'll build for Me, And the place of My rest? Where then is the house you'll build for Me, And the place of My rest? Heav-en is My throne, and the earth The foot-stool for My feet. Where then is the house you'll build for Me, And the place of My rest?
