2. Creation is the lovely platform
Of this divine romance sublime
Between a creature and Creator
Upon the bridge of space and time;
For this the heavens were stretched forth
The earth's foundations laid
Tripartite man, made to contain Him,
Was with a spirit made.

3. God became man through incarnation
Man's empty virtues to imbue,
In Christ fulfilling His intention
Creation old becoming new;
God's attributes so bountiful
In human virtues shown
Uplifted, filled, enriched, and strengthened;
Love, life, and light—made known.

4. Though man became usurped by Satan
God gave His Son man's life to win;
The Olive Tree was cut and wounded
So sinners could be grafted in
Transferred from Adam into Christ,
Brought out of death into life;
Forgiveness kissing man's repentance
Hath sealed them Husband and wife.

5. God became man to make man God;
The King became a countryman
Through incarnation, human living
The cross and resurrection's plan;
A country girl to be His queen
Presented as His bride,
Fully redeemed, regenerated
Transformed and glorified.

6. Christ and the church a perfect match
And universal loving pair
The Spirit and the bride in union
One mingled life and living share;
The Husband is the proessed God
The man the transformed wife
To be the New Jerusalem
Living a marriage life.
