

I Live and Yet Not I

Experience of Christ—As Life

(Guitar: Capo 3)

D		F#m	Bm	G	A	D
1. I	live	and	yet	not	I,	For
						Christ
						He lives in me.
D		F#m	Bm	G	A	D
	The	life	I	live	in	the flesh
						now
						Is Christ,
						just Christ,
						to
						be.
D	F#m		Bm		G	A	D
	O	what	a	mar -	vel -	ous
				hope,	Lord,	To find my - self in
						You,
D	F#m		Bm	G	A⁷	D
	And	in	ex -	pe -	rience	my boast - ing,
						To
						know
						You through and through.

2. O what a wondrous existence,
Of all which is most blessed.
You see, Lord, I am now softened
To take from You what's best.

It's not my fervent resolve, Lord,
Nor e'en my love untrue.
It's You in me Who is doing,
What I for You couldn't do.

3. From every other attraction—
Be faithful, break me free.
Though smarting, Lord, from Love's action,
Each wound draws me to Thee.

You see each end from beginning;
Take me through each dark phase;
As long, Lord, as love conforms me,
Fits me to meet You that day.

4. So here we are, dear Lord Jesus,
And may Your precious hand,
Accomplish all that You've purposed,
All that You've for us planned.

You are our one destination,
You are our destiny.
These days, just for our preparing,
Will leave what in memory?

5. In us, Lord, gain all You're after,
In us, Lord, gain Your Bride.
In us, be so very blessed.
In us, be satisfied.

As we, Lord, become Your fullness
And You in us reside,
Keep us, dear Lord, in Your love-bonds,
As mutually we abide.