1. In con - tact through the ag - es, God de - sig - nates Him -

us. Not dis - tant and un - know - a - ble, but seen with A - bra - ham Whose con - tact, sweet and in - ti - mate.
Chorus
(C) The "I Am Who I Am," the self - ex - ist - ing
One, What mir - a - cle that He would stoop to us;
Not for - mal ways from con - cept But sweet re - la - tion - ship That comes as con - ver - sa - tion of two friends.

2. While Abraham remained standing before Jehovah,
His purpose was to intercede for Lot, for Lot.
This glorious intercession that Abraham made
Was just a human conversation.

3. Not a stranger you talk to in the grocery store once,
Not a relative you call twice a month;
This human relationship between God and man
Comes from many interactions.
