

Remind me, Lord, today of Your return

Hope of Glory — Longing and Praying

(Guitar: Capo 1)

1. Re - mind me, Lord, to - day of Your re - turn; While here on earth I pray: May my heart for You yearn. From heav'n You'll soon ap - pear, Your face we'll see; A - wait - ing You so dear we must al - ways
be. Yet how oft, for - get - ting Your prom - ise true, I have lived my days far from You.
May all my days a - head - be fixed on Thee— Oh, I'm here, Lord, a - wait - ing Thee!

2. While here below I stay, indeed I know—
You will return one day; I must all things forgo.
I set my all on You—You who are true;
My life is set towards You, e'en the things I'll do.
I just see no hope on this dull, dark earth;
No bright lot in false, fading mirth!
My hope's my coming Lord, our destiny—
Oh, I'm here, Lord, awaiting Thee!
