

Oh, What a Preeminent Christ

Praise of the Lord — His Exaltation

(Guitar: Capo 3)

The musical score is written for guitar with a capo on the 3rd fret. It consists of four staves of music in a 6/8 time signature. The melody is in the treble clef, and the chords are indicated by letters above the notes. The lyrics are written below the notes.

1. Oh, what a pre-em-i-nent Christ! You have the first place in all things. Your name is a - bove ev - ery name, Ex - alt - ed by God, Lord and King. My por - tion is Your - self a - lone, Al - lot - ted by God in the light. I hold You as my Head to - day. Lord, You are my fo - cus, my life.

2. Oh, what a preeminent Christ!

My center, my hope, and my joy!
The power and wisdom of God!
The One I uniquely enjoy.
To grow up in You in all things,
I ask You to shepherd my soul.
Whatever You wish, Lord — amen.
I give You my heart as a whole.

3. Oh, what a preeminent Christ!

My heart You are making Your home.
As, choice after choice, I seek You,
In me You establish Your throne.
I open to let my King in,
Nor will I resist You, but still
I raise the white flag of defeat,
Surrendering all to Your will.

4. Oh, what a preeminent Christ!

Surrender is truly a rest.
Your cross is my gateway to joy.
Your heart toward me harbors the best.
I love You with all of my heart.
For me, You are second to none.
The cross has turned everything sweet;
I find my delight in the Son!

5. Oh, what a preeminent Christ!

I live for Your sake, not my own.
Your magnification comes forth
From life flowing out of Your throne.
Lord, You are the One seated there.
We all are enjoying Your reign.
The church is Your Kingdom on earth,
Upholding Your sanctified name!

6. Oh, what a preeminent Christ!

We look to Your coming again.
Your glory will fill the whole earth!
Your people will sound the Amen!
No darkness remains at the dawn
Of seeing Your glorious face —
We love Your appearing within;
Our God, our Beloved, what grace!
