

How Lovely Are Your Tabernacles

The Church — Her Attraction

(Guitar)

1. How love - ly are Your tab - er - na - cles, This my heart doth seek;
Ex - pe - ri - ence of Christ in all The of - fer - ings we bring.
Once God as life sup - ply, Now E - den's ground with - held;
To taste the tree of life re - quires An en - trance once a - gain.

Chorus
(C) My soul, my soul longs For the courts of the Lord;
My heart and flesh cry out To my God.

2. At Thy two altars, e'en the
Weakest sparrow may draw near.
The swallow come for refuge and
A nest for tender care.
Redeemed may entrance find,
And offer thus in prayer
The resurrected Christ in His
Ascension, fragrance rare.

3. In our acceptance, God in peace
Hath made a living way,
Our boldness now for entering
Within the Holiest Place.
Tis' here within the ark
Eternal portion share.
Incarnate Triune God and we
One testimony bear.

4. Eternally Thy house of rest;
With God, now consummate,
We're mingled, one, incorp'rate
In this mutual dwelling place.
The priests who live to God
Elect among man's race.
Now Christ's own Body are,
To have His foretaste in this age.
