- 2. At Thy two altars, e'en the
 Weakest sparrow may draw near.
 The swallow come for refuge and
 A nest for tender care.
 Redeemed may entrance find,
 And offer thus in prayer
 The resurrected Christ in His Ascension, fragrance rare.
- 3. In our acceptance, God in peace
 Hath made a living way,
 Our boldness now for entering
 Within the Holiest Place.
 Tis' here within the ark
 Eternal portion share.
 Incarnate Triune God and we
 One testimony bear.

4. Eternally Thy house of rest;
With God, now consummate,
We're mingled, one, incorp'rate
In this mutual dwelling place.
The priests who live to God
Elect among man's race.
Now Christ's own Body are,
To have His foretaste in this age.
